STRAWBERRIES NEED A MULCH IN THE FALL

The tender crowns and roots of strawberries need cover of straw or mulch to keep them warm and safe from frost. It is best to give them the mulch that is best of shape and size and the dividends next year.

Why mulch strawberries any way? Specialists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture give these reasons:

- To prevent actual frost injury to crowns and roots.
- To reduce root rot.
- To prevent rotting of plants resulting in more root injury.

Even after the prime purposes of mulching have been achieved, you will be able to see several additional advantages.

lates next spring. When the mulch is removed from the rows and left between the rows, it forms a mat that gives weeds very little to go on. A mulch is also a good moisture conserving agent. And it prevents the fruit from being scattered by mud during rains.

Don't mulch until there have been several frosts night after night. The plants need a little hardening. But don't let "munchless" strawberries see any temperatures below 14 degrees F. Use wheat straw or wood shavings for the home garden. Cover the rows evenly with about 2-4 inches of the material.

When should you take mulch off? Around mid-April. If left too long, some plants may be injured. Just leave the mulch between the rows, for the seasons mentioned before.

Bake Sale and Tea Held by W.I.

The hazard, bake sale and tea held by the Lindsay W. I. recently in the Town Hall, Lindsay, was a huge success and many people patronized this effort. The tea tables were very effectively decorated with Halloween centrepieces and decorated table napkins to match. The bake table displayed many delicious pies, cakes, preserves, and home-made bread to tempt the buyers, and the fancy table also had many attractive wares to sell.

Practically everything was sold before the close of the afternoon. The centre tea table was very attractive with a bowl of golden flowers and two lovely silver tea services at each end for the pourers. Receiving at the door were Mrs. F. H. Dayman, hazard convenor and Mrs. L. Hutton, president.

The bazaar was opened by the District Secretary, Mrs. George Geisel, who stated how pleased she was to be present and wished the W.I. every success.

Pouring tea were Mrs. W. Waite, Mrs. H. Taylor, Mrs. A. W. Williams and Mrs. V. Campbell. Serving teas were Mrs. D. Heels, Mrs. W. C. Folwell and Mrs. A. J. Meens.

Bake table helpers were Mrs. A. Gilchrist (convenor), Mrs. C. E. Ross, Mrs. F. Gore and Mrs. P. Mark. Fancy work stall, Mrs. E. W. Nicholls (convenor), Mrs. C. L. Hickson and Mrs. C. H. Brett. Touch and take table was in charge of Mrs. J. Griffin. Mrs. M. Honeys and Mrs. M. Howlett were in charge of the turkey draw. Kitchen convenor was Mrs. H. Neale with helpers, Miss Besse McFadden, Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mrs. M. McKenzie and Mrs. A. Montgomery.

DeGroat thinks matter one for Adjustment Committee to settle

Peire says phone calls poured in

Zoning Administrator Jas. E. Peire is to be asked to give Town Council an up-to-date report on his investigations into the wedding business operated by Mr. Stuart Sleep, Pottinger Street. The report is to be made at next week's committee meeting.

Correspondence read at Monday night's meeting of Council from Mr. E. Peire revealed that he had discovered Mr. Sleep had not contacted Mr. E. Wright, chairman of the Lindsay Pottinger Township Planning Board as was alleged to have been the case.

In his letter to Mr. Sleep, the zoning administrator said in effect that he was discontinuing the operation of adjusting and was adhering to the matter would have to be taken to court.

Town Clerk W. R. A. Peire informed Council he had before him a petition signed by 30 or so neighbours of Mr. Sleep, asking that he be allowed to continue his business venture.

It was the opinion of Council that all council had asked Mr. E. Peire for a copy of the letter telling the man to desist.

Mayor Lawrence said he would have liked to fuller report on the matter.

It was suggested by Council that if the operation of the wedding shop was contrary to the bylaw, the question was a matter for the Committee of Adjustment to settle.

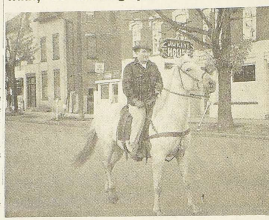

Deputy-revee Peire told how he had been deluged with telephone calls after the letter from Mr. E. Peire was received by Mr. Sleep. "A motion passed at the last meeting of Council clearly asked the zoning administrator to bring in a report. The letter from Mr. E. Peire went further than the motion suggested," said the speaker.

On motion of deputy-revee Peire, Mr. E. Peire was asked to bring in a report at next Monday night's meeting.

It was discussed at a recent meeting of Council that Mr. Sleep was carrying on his business in an area zoned as residential.

WMS Meeting
Blackstock (PNS) — The October meeting of the W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Glen Larson, Wednesday afternoon with sixteen ladies present. An interesting theme was carried out through the opening and workshop period. Mrs. Rensell conducted the service. Mrs. Hill gave a reading. Mrs. Glenn Larson conducted a very interesting question and answer period in the October Missionary Monthly. Mrs. Taylor told interesting facts from the study book. Lunch of cookies and pumpkin pie was served.

What, no hitching post?

A horseman riding into Lindsay these days is confronted with quite a problem . . . The town has done away with all its hitching posts . . . Some people will advance the suggestion that the town still welcomes visitors on horseback and that the modern parking meters here are just dandy for tying up their steeds. Those who know the facts disagree on the grounds that to properly tie up a saddled horse, the hitching post must have a ring attached on, in the case of some of the wooden variety, a carefully carved slot to accommodate the rein. But that's really not such a vital issue at the moment because mounted horsemen coming into town these days are about as scarce as snow in July. That's what made Clair Murtha and his handsome Palomino mount such an interesting camera study as he rode through the street of Lindsay in the relative quiet of an autumn Sunday afternoon.

Assaults on women prompt plea for more foot patrols; liquor factor in case—Bench

An incident involving the common assault of two Lindsay women recently, was discussed by members of Town Council at Monday night's regular meeting.

Mayor Lloyd Burrows broached the subject by stating he felt more policemen should be seen on the main street. "Two local women were molested by an Ommee man recently at a store's throw from the police office," his worship declared.

Reeve Bruce Maidens said he was of the opinion that there should be more show of force by the local department.

Police Chairman E. MacCallister said he would take the matter up with the chief.

In Magistrate's Court on Monday 23-year-old William Mitchell of Ommee was fined $25 plus costs of $4.50 when charged with common assault.

The accused entered a plea of "not guilty" to both charges. Mrs. W. Crowley told the court she was making her way into the town hall shortly before 8 p.m., for the Saturday evening bingo session when the accused came behind her and grabbed her. The witness testified that Mitchell pulled her down. "I had to struggle to get away from him," she said. Mrs. Crowley said following the incident accused ran away.

Something wrong with mentality of youths who'd fire bridge, Deputy-revee Peire declares

"There is something wrong with the mentality of youths who set fire to bridges and commit other such acts of vandalism," Deputy-revee Harry Peire declared during a discussion at Monday night's meeting of Lindsay Council.

Previous to this remark Mr. Peire had said he would like Council to give thought to hiring additional policemen at Halloween.

The speaker said he did not want to be accused of trying to stop children's fun, but he felt a lot of the acts committed at Halloween were in the hollow-gate.

Deputy-revee Peire said "people are paying for police protection and we have to supply it. Lindsay has been relatively clear of vandalism, but I am afraid we do want to keep that way if at all possible."

First Day!

Kivans "Showboat" stage was the scene of presentation of Community Chest canvassers' first day collection. At half time, Chief Vice-President, and cast member, Joe Holm spoke to the audience about the benefits which we as citizens derive from Chest Work. Meanwhile, other Chest workers had arranged for pretty little Cindy Davies to present Joe with the canvasser's first day receipts. Caught by the camera just as Cindy presented him with the envelopes containing the money, Joe is shown remarking, "Wow—that a wonderful response!"

Deputy-revee Peire said "people are paying for police protection and we have to supply it. Lindsay has been relatively clear of vandalism, but I am afraid we do want to keep that way if at all possible."

The Editor, The Free Press, Lindsay, Ontario.
Dear Sir:

We are holding our 41st Annual Reunion in Ottawa on Saturday, November 21st in the Assembly Hall, Lansdowne Park, at 6.30 p.m.

As we lack the postal addresses of many members we would be happy to hear from you if you could find space in your newspaper for a brief mention of this—as a possible reliable number of men from Lindsay and district served with our Battalion.

Our association is a non-profit organization having no members fees.

On the attached sheet is a brief summary of the Battalion's history.

Thinking you for whatever you may be able to do for us, Yours sincerely,

Nothing Serious?

An article in the Owen Sound Sun Times, which referred to Lindsay as a Peterborough area town read to the effect that on Monday night's regular meeting of Town Council a young man, Adam C. M. M., who died in 1917, was mentioned as being a member of the 38th Battalion.

Noticed along the way
That
This is the season for making tracks . . . With the first fall of snow the youngsters make tracks and so do all the little and large creatures of the great out-of-doors. In cities, towns and villages, many adults make tracks too . . . They make tracks for their nearest shoe store to pick up some rubber footwear. Imagine their surprise when they approach one of these stores and discover that someone ahead of them was making tracks but they were in the snow. They were multicoloured footprints on the sidewalk, leading right to the door of the shoe store. He followed the footprints and got his reward.

It never rains but what it pours and there's another saying that goes "It rained cats and dogs." The last big rain at Lindsay was something of a disappointment . . . Three calls reported for the evening mail but no home but there wasn't a dog in the deluge. One of the trio, a cute looking little fellow with whiskers not unlike those which used to grace the face of "Old Bill" (The Better Old) of the "east-and-north" type . . . But he's forgiven because he was just full of loving-kindness until he got his tummy full.

Some people claim others aren't worth their salt but the salt manufacturers apparently don't think these individuals are too plentiful. Since Salt Limited, one of the nation's big producers, announces it is going ahead with plans to produce more salt, it must mean increasing demands for its product. They tell all about the expansion program in the printer's matter which accompanies a neat plasticized brief case. "If you eat a man's salt, you're his man," Right?

Members of the Battalion were awarded 29 decorations, including two Victoria Crosses to Lt. Col. T. W. MacDowell, V.C., D.S.O., now of Toronto, and Sgt. Claude J. P. Nuny, V.C., D.C.M., M.M., who died in 1917.

Ex-members of the unit are expected to attend from Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, Kingston, Lindsay, Toronto, St. Thomas, Hamilton, London, Windsor, as well as from many places in the Ottawa Valley.

The Commanding Officer when Colonel Cameron M. Edwards, D.S.O., V.D., 2 Bars to D.S.O. 3 times mentioned in Despatches, and French Medal of Honour who died June 18, 1959.

Mr. Deffenbacher made the remark at the second day of the annual meeting of the Ontario Progressive Conservative Association which is being held at Toronto's Royal York Hotel.

Mr. Deffenbacher thanked Ontario's Conservatives for what he termed their "magnificent support" in the last federal election. He said the Free Press has marked the decade of Ontario's great progress and added that it was "honoured" to be a part of it.

Mr. Herby, 33, was admitted to hospital Monday after suffering a serious fracture to the left ankle.

SPRINGDALE GARDENS

Fate now in balance, president declares been considering for some eight years.

Mr. Stoller said that the resolution of the Lindsay Town Council not to sell services to the Permanent Investment Corporation imposed a condition on this company which was impossible of being fulfilled and perhaps could be legally challenged.

Continuing, Mr. Stoller stated: "This company would never accept the Council of the Township of Ops or any other Governmental body, Corporation or individual to succumb to them an ultimatum of Lindsay's Council, to Ops Council to hand over 3800 acres of its territory for the supply of services to this Company's 'Springdale Gardens' subdivision."

"To my mind, Lindsay Council's resolution in this matter constituted unfair bargaining with the Township of Ops. Inasmuch as it says in effect: 'We continue not to sell any services to this area.' The Township of Ops also to the 'Springdale Gardens' subdivision as to other lots, the Township of Ops surrenders the 3800 acres Lindsay desires to annex then Lindsay Council would be forced to accept 'Springdale Gardens' subdivision."

"If Lindsay Council does not seem to appreciate that this is not a single application for sewers and water for one's own property, but for the benefit of those services through the medium of our Company."

Mr. Stoller said that the Township of Ops sorely needed in the Lindsay area as the demand provided for many people in this area.

Therefore if Lindsay Council had any confidence in this matter, Mr. Stoller said, before the Ontario Municipal Board, it would unhesitatingly accept the Township of Ops to all those who own properties within the 3800 acres of proposed annexation.

Therefore Lindsay Council would to annex 3800 acres of Ops but its present policy book provides for the Township of Ops in opposing any attempt by Lindsay Council at annexation in all the circumstances of the matter.

"Whatever the final outcome of this matter, it will be a question of how the Township of Ops will always think kindly of the 'Genesis' of this kind of a problem."

Mr. Stoller said that the company has already cost the company considerable expense in the matter of the Township of Ops, planners, engineers and lawyers to obtain final approval of the subdivision of the Township of Ops. Accordingly this Company was instructed among other things not to allow the sale of the two homes at the entrance to the subdivision.

"The foresight of the Council in this matter is being promptly doing its part by signing the Municipal Agreement with the Permanent Investment Corporation. This week has now saved the abandonment of the project but the Company must still have sewers and water."

Mr. Stoller said that to obtain final approval of the subdivision it was made imperative that the company obtain a Township agreement with the Township of Ops, which would subordinate municipal authority in this matter, and also to obtain the supply of services. Since the Township of Ops has no municipal services to sell, the P.I.C. was relying upon the co-operation of Lindsay Town Council in this matter.

"But what had Lindsay Town Council done," he said, "was to representatives of the Permanent Investment Corporation has asked Lindsay Town Council to make an application to the Township of Ops, to name, namely, the Council has made a political football of the Permanent Investment Corporation in its approach for annexation which Lindsay has

Lindsay's Social Register share more than halved in next issue; 46 names fewer in second edition

Montreal — Lindsay will have three-quarters of a page in the forthcoming edition of the Social Register of Canada as against their page and three-quarters in the first edition. However, the number of local citizens recognized by Blue Book is fewer by only 46 names.

The disparity was reported today by the Social Register of Canada Association which says that biographical information in the volume due to be published this month is more complete than ever. It includes the names and addresses of members' children as well as mention of other relatives. This accounts for the book being larger.

Members of the Social Register of Canada Association, those who were nominated last year and who were able to acquire the volume, prompted the move, admit the publication of "Claims of dubious lineage, members of unwholesome clubs, persons politically incorrect, in short red-headed stepchildren."

Covering all ten provinces, the Social Register gives separate sections to their major cities and to their metropolitan areas as well. Residents of citizens of smaller communities are listed according to province.

WMC meeting held in Fenelon Falls

Gooderham, Ont. — The monthly meeting of the WMC of the Pentecostal Church was held at Fenelon Falls at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hester. The meeting was in keeping with Thanksgiving. Hymns were sung, prayers offered. Psalm 92 was read by the president, Mrs. G. Hadley.

In the absence of Mrs. E. Mintz the title entitled "Such As I Have I Give" was taken by Mrs. G. W. Barr. Mrs. A. Hunter read the poem "Oxy Bread Upon the Waters," Mrs. Hantmon read "My Mother's Prayer." Mrs. J. E. Hester read the minutes. A quilling will be held in October.

The meeting closed with prayer. Mrs. Lorna Jackett assisted with lunch.

NONVIOLENCE THE BEST WAY

"I don't think violence can bring about permanent peace. It only increases bitterness, and you have another problem to solve after that particular problem is solved, whereas a non-violent struggle means that once the struggle is over, it is over and the desire involved start out on a new level of understanding, goodwill, and a new relationship of brotherhood. Therefore I would say that it is the best way and ultimately the only effective and lasting way to solve social problems." Dr. Martin Luther King.

P.I.C. representatives are attending the Lindsay Water Commissioners on November 12th.

The Permanent Investment Corporation has been told by the Lindsay Board of Water Commissioners would consider the matter from a business rather than a political point of view. Mr. Stoller said in conclusion, that he personally hoped to see a number of new, experienced men and women would be for the benefit of Lindsay and District accept non-violent solutions in view of these circumstances, and the

Beaver playing havoc with Birch Is...trees summer resident writes

Canada's largest rodent, the beaver, working in groups of five or six, is doing considerable damage to the trees on Birch Island, Lake Scugog.

These cunning animals work at night and in spite of their ability as engineers to fall their trees in a pre-determined direction, they fail to take into consideration the overhead power lines serving the cottages. So writes summer resident, Lindsay, Badgley McGinnis.

Continuing, Mr. Badgley writes:

"The beaver have a liking for the poplar, but when they are not available their next choice is the birch and will-fow."

"They have been sampling the two poplar trees to the left of the swing. Their ground marks are shown on 15 inches above their tooth marks."

"When the tree fell across the wires and remained suspended by the wires, the beavers were not discouraged, they immediately started to make another cut further up the trunk of the tree. As engineers they may not have known but they do their most destructive work at night—when this tree was removed from the wires they returned the next night to cut off the branches and to peel the bark off other branches as clear as the rest of the tree had been done with a draw knife."

"They completed the falling of another tree 12 inches in diameter on the same lot. About half the cutting on this tree had been done the night before."

"The beaver have a liking for the poplar, but when they are not available their next choice is the birch and will-fow."

Arson squad may be called in; loss exaggerated

CNR officials report that Sunday night fires which destroyed a wooden bridge — the Thompson Bridge — four miles from Lindsay, had caused an estimated $100,000 damage. One spokesman said damage would be in the region of $20,000.

Halloween pranksters are reported in some quarters to have been responsible for the phase that completely destroyed the 75-foot bridge.

Burning debris which fell to the right-of-way warped five lengths of rail, two telephone wires also burned.

The structure, built many years ago jointly by the railway company, the Department of Highways and the County of Lindsay, earned the title "Thompson Bridge" because of rumbling set up as vehicles crossed it.

Work crews cleared the Midland line in time for the scheduled service this morning. The last train to pass under the bridge was 8:25 p.m. Saturday.

The fire was first noticed at approximately 4 a.m. The bridge collapsed about two hours later at 9:30 a.m., the railway disclosed today.

The fire broke out in 1954 and was situated on what is known as the Cambray cut. "They will be looking for some time, it was disclosed this morning.

Fire Chief Arnold Watson said the fire was summoned to the scene shortly before 4:30 a.m. Sunday. "The bridge collapsed about two hours later at 9:30 a.m., the railway disclosed today.

Chief Watson said the railway was completely cut off and tank to the scene. One of the problems facing us was a shortage of water," the chief declared.

The incident is being investigated by the local department of OPP and railway police. It is reported that the arson squad may be called in to conduct on-site post-mortem investigations.

All day Sunday hundreds of people gathered to view the scene of the fire to view the still blazing ruins. Gazing down over the embankment one saw twisted ribbons of steel track and twisted steel truss that had spanned the overpass, scorched telephone poles and twisted steel beams. Workers speeding the job of readying the line for today's traffic.

A common remark at the scene: "This is carrying things too far — I can't understand why anyone would do such a thing."

Much Vandalism
Other damage in this area on Halloween night resulted from broken windows to the lighting of fires in the main street of Lindsay.

OPP report that fires were lit at Manilla, Oakwood and Brooklin. Lanes of straw were set on fire. Power lines were cut. Little Britain's main street is also reported to have been set for a baled hay.

Near Manilla, a small unoccupied shack was completely destroyed. It was set on fire by hoodlums.

A spokesman for the local fire department said that damage was caused by gangsters roving around the area in cars.

Damage estimated at $500 was caused in three places. 155 windows were smashed at a new hotel under construction west of Lindsay.

Doctors hopeful of saving sight

A spokesman at St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterborough, said this morning doctors were hopeful of saving the sight of six-year-old Richard Pogus' left eye. The boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pogus, 10 Hill St., Lindsay. The injured boy and his elder brother Stephen, 7, were playing with a fly swatter at their home when a piece of loose wire on the swatter pierced his left eyeball. A friend of the family told "The Post" that after medical treatment by Dr. Peter Gill, the boy was immediately rushed to Peterborough.

Would have children go to school and attend as a body

A spokesman for the hospital said the youngster had spent a fairly comfortable night. Dr. H. B. Cragg is the attending physician. The boy's mother is staying with relatives in Peterborough. Mr. Pogus is a railroad worker out of Toronto.

Acheson overcomes opposition, Arena lot to be graded

Despite strong opposition Councilor Denis Acheson, Monday, won her point and secured the assurance that the vacant lot west of the arena would be graded and covered with gravel before the frost sets in. Mr. Acheson said she had received complaints from women pedestrians whose clothing was continually being splashed by motorists using the free parking lot. Coun. Pepper said he was against spending any money on the lot until such time as a report concerning the future of the property was forthcoming from the Town Property chairman. Board of Works Chairman James McQuarrie informed the Council it would cost $3,460 to pave the lot. Mr. McQuarrie revealed the engineer was of the opinion 35 cars could be parked on the site. "This figure would not include the cost of the installation of the meters," declared the speaker. Coun. Pepper said he would present a nickel of the public in order to provide a suitable spot for free parking. The Councilor reminded fellow members at the last meeting of Council he had asked what the future of this valuable site might be. On that occasion Mr. Pepper revealed that a local organization was endeavoring to obtain the space for a possible building project. When the matter was put to a vote Councilors DeGraaf and the Pepper opposed the motion. (Continued on Page 2)

In a few days, 100 years of service will be celebrated by St. Mary's

Just a few days now, St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church Lindsay, whose cross-stopped spire is shown above glistering in the late fall sunshine, will celebrate its 100th anniversary. Special events have been arranged to commemorate the occasion which will commence with Solemn Pontifical High Mass in the church at 4 p.m. Sunday. Most Rev. Bishop R. I. Webster, D.D., of the Diocese of Kingston, will be the celebrant of the mass, and Miss Marie O'Leary of St. Mary's will be the preacher. Others participating in the mass will include: Rev. V. J. Gilgoly, Peterborough and Rev. Jas. Greenan, Kirkfield. In honor of the mass, Deacons and Sub-deacons, respectively: Rev. C. J. Carroll, P. Assistant Priest, and Rev. John Coughlin and Rev. J. Hart who will serve as Masters of Ceremonies. Weather permitting, a procession of clergy will be staged from the rectory to the church during which a peal of bells will be heard for the first time. He estimated 60 visiting clergy are expected to be present for the centennial celebrations from various parts of Ontario and people of faith have been invited to participate. The centennial celebrations will commemorate the opening and blessing of St. Mary's Church and the first mass was said on Christmas Day, 1859 by Rev. Fr. Farley. The present church, of course, been enlarged since that time.

In Memoriam

PARCELS—In loving memory of Reginald Parcels who passed away Nov. 11, 1935. His life is a beautiful memory. His death is our silent grief. His steps in God's beautiful garden in the sunshine of perfect peace. Go leave him in God's keeping. The rough road safely over my dear Dad. I loved so well. As only one before. —Ever remembered by Donald and Mona. (2833)

HAL—In loving memory of our infant son, Shaun Kenneth, who passed away Nov. 9, 1934. He is gone but not forgotten. And, as dawn another year, in our lonely hours of thinking, Thoughts of him are always near. Days of sadness will come o'er us. Friends may think the wound is healed. But they little know the sorrow That lies within the heart concealed. —Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by Mother, Dad, Val, and Connie. (2811)

In loving memory of brother Reginald K. Parcels who passed away Nov. 11, 1935. Many a lonely heartache, Many a silent tear, Always a faithful memory For him no longer near. God gave us strength to bear it. Courage to fight the blow. But what it meant to lose a brother like Reg. Nine will ever know. —Sadly missed by sister Ruby, Bert and girls. (3813)

PARCELS—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Reginald K. Parcels, who passed away Nov. 11, 1935. Gone from the earth so swiftly Just like a flower in bloom So young, so fair, so loving and true. Yet called away so soon. We shall meet our dear Reg some bright morning. Resting by the waters fair. He is waiting for our coming. He is waiting for us. —Sadly missed and always remembered by Dad, Mom, Brother Gerald and Lloyd. (3820)

PARCELS—In loving memory of a nephew, Reginald K. Parcels, who passed away suddenly Nov. 11, 1935. Reg was a loving nephew. A friend so good and true. A better nephew never lived. As equal are but few. —Lovingly remembered by Uncle Joe and Aunt Lila Warren. (1911)

Leaving Area Argyle Couple Receive Gifts

Argyle (PNS) A large crowd of school mates, relatives, friends and neighbors gathered in Argyle School to honour Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hopkins ere their departure for their new home in Beaverton.

The evening's program opened with some playing of music and dancing to the music supplied by the Smith Bros. and Mr. Lorne Brown of Beaverton.

Mr. Peter MacEachern asked Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins to come to the front, while he read the following address:

Dear Lizzie and Charlie: We, your school mates, relatives, friends and neighbors have gathered here in this old schoolroom again to extend to you our regrets of your departure from our midst. We regret you are leaving our community. You have lived and grown up with us.

Your friendship and help has always been freely given, your door was always open to us all and many were the friendly cups of tea we enjoyed in your home. You were a good neighbor, always ready with a willing and helping hand where help was needed. And to have a good neighbor is have one of life's richest treasures, and we know that your new neighbors will find the same sincerity and helpfulness we have enjoyed.

So we are happy this evening to have the opportunity of extending to you both, our best wishes for health and happiness for the future in your new home, and we trust that you will have many happy years of retired life with more ease, which you both greatly deserve.

We your Argyle and Beaverton friends ask you to accept these gifts as a token of our esteem and friendship and hope you will enjoy it for many years and as you use them may it recall the good days at Argyle and Beaverton.

Signed on behalf of your neighbors and friends, Peter MacEachern, Cecil Nicholls, Peter Innis and Garret Peel.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholls were presented with a desk and four folding chairs. Charlie and Lizzie each expressed their thanks in a few well-chosen words and invited everyone to visit them in their new home. "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung.

Lucheon was served and dancing was resumed and a good time was had by all.

Getting to the Church Ahead of Time Possibly Averted Serious Fire

A case of "getting to the church ahead of time" possibly averted a serious fire at the Long Point United Church on Sunday.

When the caretaker arrived at the church shortly after 7:30 a.m. Sunday, some two hours earlier than is normal, he found the building enveloped in smoke. An emergency call to nearby Kirkfield volunteer Fire Department brought quick response.

It was later ascertained that a portion of flooring had been burned by a spark from a nearby stove.

A spokesman for the church told "The Post" it was thought the fire had smoldered from the previous Friday evening. It was disclosed that a fowl supper was held at the church on that evening.

The smokesman paid tribute to the fire work of the Kirkfield Fire Department for their quick action.

They Wonder Who
The Bradford, Ontario Police Department this week investigated the use of slugs in a soft drink machine.

A LOT OF PULL
Chicago election officials had a puzzle on their minds. A normally solid republican district registered an all-time high democratic vote total. The officials found that an enthusiastic democratic voter had used so much force in pulling the voting machine lever that he broke the machine's main spring.

Sally Shops' "100th" store Opening at Lindsay

Five stores for every year of its existence the way things average out for the firm of Sally Shops Ltd. of Canada. About to open its 100th store at Lindsay, this young rapidly growing company has just recently celebrated its 20th birthday.

Sally Shops Ltd. carries a wide choice of medium priced women's apparel: sportswear, lingerie and hosiery. The emphasis is on the latest styling and good quality at popular prices.

For the future, the company plans a very conservative growth. Every new location must rank high in pedestrian traffic, so that the shopping community may most conveniently be served.

An elaborate system of stock control at head office enables the management to determine what acceptance each style has had in each store throughout the chain. After carefully analyzing the preferences of the shopper, the merchandise is shipped to the store in which it sells best. This not only guarantees customer satisfaction as to choice, but makes it possible to offer better values and greater savings.

The store front and interior design of the new stores are modern in very detail. The store layout is carefully planned. Improvements are made whenever possible so as to increase the pleasure of shopping older stores are instantly being modernized.

Store managers, a spokesman for the company states, are paid generously through salary, commission and bonus plans and are made to feel they have a stake in the progress of the company. Most of the store managers have been with the company for many years. Preference is given in employment to members of the local community where the store is situated.

Vancouver born, Harry L.

Kotman is the founder and President of Sally Shops Ltd. After graduating from the University of British Columbia in 1930, he spent several years acquiring an extensive knowledge of women's wear retailing.

Mr. Kotman says he believes in building an organization, obtaining the services of employees who are able to feel a strong loyalty to the company. Motivating the entire structure, says Mr. Kotman "it has always been his policy to pay better than average salaries and to and to ensure her complete satisfaction. Sally Shops' stands behind every article sold. Goods found to be unsatisfactory in any way may be returned for refund at any Sally Shop in Canada."

Dangerous Falls
Soap left in the bathtub or on the floor of the shower may cause dangerous falls. A rubber mat in the bath helps to prevent slipping.

Persons who only get four or five hours sleep nightly are getting less than the eight hours considered advisable for the average adult. It is not wise to take sleeping pills or drugs unless ordered by the doctor. A safe home remedy that may help to offset insomnia is a short walk followed by a glass of warm milk just before retiring.

Weekend visitors at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gilchrist 91 Regent St. Mrs. J. Saunders and Mr. Chas. Saunders, 85 Durham St. W. were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer (Dad) Saunders and son Jack of Niagara-on-the-Lake and Mr. and Mrs. David Graham of St. Catharines. No Secret Milton Wallish didn't have a very secret ballot in the New York City election.

Wallish was the only voter to appear at his district polling place all day. Three other persons were eligible to vote but they didn't show up.

The area is all but depopulated by a housing project.

Elaborate Fire Rescue A recent fire rescue at a home in Wimborne, England, was quite an elaborate operation.

The house caught fire and Mrs. Irene Combs rescued her entire animal kingdom—13 cats, 10 dogs, five puppies, three mice, three guinea pigs, two parakeets and one parrot.

Personal Interest A rookie policeman in Los Angeles had a personal interest in his first arrest.

Twenty-one-year-old policeman John Ensign was cruising in a patrol car. It was his third day on the job. He spotted a stolen car... gave chase... nabbed the thief and arrested him.

He knew the car was stolen because it was his own.

HOCKEY ACTION

One game in each hockey league tonight — Boston at New York in the National, Rochester at Buffalo in the American. In Tuesday night action, in the National League, Toronto defeated Chicago, 3-1. In the American League, Springfield 7, Quebec 3, and Hershey 3, Providence 3.

EASTERN HOCKEY LEAGUE

There are no games scheduled in Eastern Professional Hockey League today. Yesterday, one game was played. Hull-Ottawa downed Kingston 6-3 at Kingston.

TWO RESIGNATIONS

Assistant coaches Jimmy Dunn, and Pat Preston of the Montreal Alouettes have resigned. Their resignations came in 24-hours after head coach Douglas Walker was fired. Dunn was backfield coach under Walker. Preston has indicated that he will return to Chapel Hill, North Carolina, where was an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina under the late Jim Tatum.

TONIGHT'S FIGHT

Another day of the light heavyweight title is the story of top ranked Tarold Johnson who is a strong (1-3) favorite over Sonny Ray tonight at Chicago. Johnson, with 10 straight wins over the last four years, was stopped by Archie Moore in a title fight in 1954. Ray at 23, eight years younger than Johnson, has won 20, lost 8 and had five draws.

HARVEST RACING

The French ace — "Jamin" — is favored in the third heat of the $75,000 American trotting classic in California. California won the first heat and "Senator Frost" the second.

ESKIMOS FAVORED

The Edmonton Eskimos are favored today to win the honour of the best-of-three Western Conference football finals over the defending champions, the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

The game (at 2 p.m., MST 4 p.m. EST) will be played in freezing 10-degree temperatures, with icy 20-miles-per-hour north winds, and snow forecast for knick-off time.

NOT ENOUGH SEATS

The Ottawa Rough Riders, who solved a major problem on the field by putting together the hottest streak in Canadian football, now face another serious one of the gridiron.

According to club officials, the lack of what they consider adequate seating accommodation at Lansdowne Park could threaten the team's very existence.

The main beef is not so much that the park will not hold enough people as that it won't hold them in the right areas. Officials say seats between the sidelines are the big thing in selling tickets, and Lansdowne Park simply hasn't enough of them at the moment.

ODDSMAKERS AGAINST LEADERS

The odds-maker go against the Western Conference leader in the National Football League action this Sunday. San Francisco carries a two-game lead into Chicago to game with the Bears but the home club is picked (by two points). Baltimore, runner-up in the Western Conference, is favored (by 91 points) against Green Bay at Milwaukee. In other games, New York is picked (by 21 points) over Pittsburgh, Cleveland is the choice (at 71½) over Washington, Philadelphia get the nod (by 4 points) over the Chicago Cardinals and Los Angeles is given the edge (by 21 points) at Detroit.

SETTLERS MARCH THROUGH ALGIERS

French settlers have staged a march through the streets of Algiers abouting about against President De Gaulle and his government. The demonstrators—considered an extremist element—screamed "De Gaulle to the gallows." The outburst came during and after ceremonies commemorating the 1918 armistice.

WILD DEMONSTRATION

More than one-thousand Indian students have staged a wild demonstration in front of the New Delhi home of Defense Minister Khrushna Menon. They shouted "resign Menon" and accused him of Communist sympathies in the current border dispute with Communist China. Menon was not at home when the demonstration was held.

EXPECTED TO DEMAND EXPLANATION

The United States is expected to demand an explanation from the Panamanian government today for recent anti-American demonstrations. The U.S. ambassador to Panama—James Harrington—pays a scheduled call on the Panamanian president today. The demonstrators last week jammed the U.S. embassy and other American-owned buildings and destroyed an American flag.

USING POISON BLOWGUNS

Reports to Brussels say pygmy tribesmen using poison blowguns are at the giant Watutu tribe in a war on neighboring tribes. The reports say that at least 200 persons have died in the fighting. A battalion of some 600 Belgian colonial troops have been unable to halt the hit-and-run fighting.

THE CRANBERRY CONTROVERSY

The U.S. government has thrown 100 inspectors and 60 chemists into the cranberry controversy. They will try to learn the extent of possible contamination of the 1959 cranberry crop from a weed-killer said to be a cancer producer. The industry is aroused over the charges and says the spray is harmless to humans in the quantities used to protect the crops.

SWINGING INTO FULL PRODUCTION

Major U.S. steel producers say their mills are swinging into full production at a more rapid rate than had been forecast. U.S. steel—the biggest producer—says its mills will be turning out steel at about 60 per cent of capacity by Saturday in the east and midwest. Steelworkers are being recalled at a rapid rate which may see 75 per cent of the total work force back on the job by the end of this week.

BRAVING GALE WINDS

On the Great Lakes, ore carriers are braving gale winds and high waves to rush ore from the mines to lake ports to be hauled into steel. Gale warning on all the lakes last night failed to halt some 25 ore ships from sailing from Duluth, Minnesota, and other ports. The ships are racing the weather... with the lake freeze-up expected to start in five or six weeks.

A 'STIFF PENALTY' WILL PUT

A DAMPEN ON LAWLESSNESS

Magistrate R. I. Moore is to be commended for having imposed what might be regarded as a "stiff penalty" on a driver who was convicted on two charges in Friday's motorcade's court.

It has become increasingly apparent that light penalties (not necessarily monetary) for breaking the law are the only alternative open to the courts if they are to impress on those with lawless tendencies that they must live under the law or be prepared to be disciplined.

We do not suggest that mercy be shown but there are indications that justice has been too generously administered in the past. As a result, there are those who have lost proper respect for the law and that for which it stands.

By dealing firmly with those who break the law, law enforcement officers will be encouraged to perform their duty and magistrates and judges will thus be doing this country a real service.

TRUTH IS SOMETIMES MORE FIERDENTH THA FICION

A halfway is the past but it is likely to be remembered for a long time by the people of this district. Many of us have connected with the annual occasion have been recorded . . . Some have not.

In a nearby village by one of the unrecorded incidents has been recounted by a resident of the village. Briefly, this is the story: Human beings invaded a chicken house, removed several birds, took them to another house in the village and took them limb from limb—live!

What manner of people are these who must inflict such suffering on others?

Truth is sometimes more fiendish than fiction and no rebuke could be too scathing for those responsible for the barbarity act related above.

PRELUDE TO WAGES OR VICE WAGES

The following United Press International news story is undoubtedly going to cause a lot of people to think and ask questions:

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—(UPI)—R. J. Marlette, President of the American Industrial Management Society says it will take the steel industry and the automobile 10 years to replace the losses in wages and profits suffered in the current strike.

Marlette, of Chicago, told a convention of American managers that steel and auto workers amounted to 70 million dollars a week, and the probable loss to profits to the industry would be five to seven billion dollars.

Marlette said the steel strike was only part of the story . . . the effects of the strike have now become widespread in other industries and are apparent right here in this district.

Over the weekend, in conversation with motor car dealer Graydon King, it was learned that the steel strike has made just the difference between a profitable fall season and one which makes it uninteresting to operate.

Reference is made in the news story to the fact that the loss in wages to the steelworkers now stand at an estimated 10 million dollars and that loss of profits to the industry is between four and five billion dollars. We are not prepared to comment on this but it would be interesting to have the unbiased opinion of an economist as to the differential between wages and profits.

Those who subscribe to the private enterprise system recognize that the steel industry has a right to interest capital investment but excessive profits do not contribute to a healthy national economy any more than do excessive demands.

It has been said that the present steel strike is an 'Armageddon' for unionism . . . It would be better if it were an awakening for both sides, an awakening which would make both sides aware of the fact that strikes, like wars, leave both sides losers. There is a sign currently which reads in yellow traffic divisions of progress, which reads "Yield" . . . It should be applied to both sides in management-labor disputes.

MAKING SURE

It may be pure coincidence but the unexpected October 1st deadline of Moscow consumer good stores to take orders for Christmas car purchasing on the installment plan came right on the heels of Mr. K's return home after his trip to the land where buying consumer goods is such a way of life as being conspicuous, coffee breaks are not made but are demanded.

Coincidence or not, one thing emerges clearly: Russian women are no different from their sisters in Paris or Toronto or San Francisco. The Associated Press, in a dispatch from Moscow, says that the latest plan for Muscovites, reported that among the items in greatest demands were silver fur furs!

Another twist on the standard plan is that periodic payments do not make sense. The money is deducted from the purchaser's pay cheque by his employer. Our system is better. Who wants the boss to know that they were buying a shotgun on time?

A NEW WAY TO MAKE ELECTRICITY

A new kind of power plant that generates heat from hydrogen and oxygen and turns this heat directly into electricity was described by Allan Murray in a recent broadcast in the CBC General Overseas Service. "It is, in fact, an electro-chemical battery," he said, "made up of what are called fuel cells. There are forty cells in one, each with its own electrodes. The electrodes are made of caustic soda or potash. When hydrogen is added to one electrode and oxygen to the other the end product is an electric current."

The basic idea was not a new one, Murray said. A British scientist, Sir William Grove, first thought of the fuel cell 120 years ago, and sixty years ago one was made that actually worked, but could not then be fully developed. "Then in the early nineteen-thirties, Mr. P. C. Bacon of Cambridge University began to think out a new approach. This led, after the war, to ten years of original research and eventually, in 1957, to the placing of a fuel cell in a car built by a Cambridge University. The result is this forty-cell battery with an output of five kilowatts—enough to drive, say, a small car or a fork-lift."

The Bacon fuel cell is now almost a commercial proposition, that's to say, a completely automatic and reliable inexhaustible. Here you have a battery running on hydrogen and oxygen, but with no flame and no exhaust is water. It's quickly charged, silent, utterly free from vibration and has very few moving parts. It's a machine that makes electricity without engines, and it's completely automatic. It eliminates these intermediate steps, far more heat ends up as power.

This is something that might well foreshadow a revolution in transport. Installed, for example, in an electric locomotive, it would allow with conductor rails. And it could be the ideal battery for space satellites.

TIME TO TAKE STOCK

"You are all aware of the rapid growth of the Canadian economy during the past two decades. I need not elaborate on the fact that in less than 15 years Canada's Gross National Product has tripled while our population and standard of living have soared during this rapid growth of time."

To express it straightforwardly, "We've never had it so good. With very little effort Canadians have been able to have almost anything they have wanted. In fact, prosperity and boom conditions have been all round us. It is hard to believe that too many Canadians are Canada's perpetual right!"

"In less than two months from now we will find ourselves upon the threshold of a new decade—the dawn of the 1960's. The world around us is being predicted by Canadian economists as a period of even greater growth, productivity and wealth."

"While no informed Canadian can be pessimistic about the future, it is well to take a moment to look ahead, the intelligent Canadian will be aware that the fulfillment of the future we envisage is complex, and will demand not only careful analysis and planning, but will require a degree of vision, and last, though not least, an adventurous spirit!"

"To sum up: here is what we must, be prepared to do:—

1. Achieve greater productivity; hold a reasonable price line; and maintain stable management-labour relations.

2. Move from the soft to the hard sell in world markets.

3. Make research an integral part of development and productivity, to be practised by the many and not confined to the few.

4. Technical Schools and Universities, in co-operation with industry, should continue to focus special attention to the sciences, in order to provide the human resources that productivity demands.

5. Continuously improve the climate for industry that will enable the small businessman not only to grow but to maintain his present size and to create opportunities that will employ our enlarged population.

"The prosperity of Canadian industry, and the welfare of our Canadian people, will, in the final analysis, depend on the degree to which we succeed in business, government and other sectors of our national life."

"A remark which best sums up my subject was made recently by a prominent Canadian banker speaking at the Annual Meeting of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. He said this statement:

"The influence of our long-range economic future may have rather blinded my eyes to the fact that we are living today, here and now, in a pretty tough competitive world."

Director of Trade and Industry (Ontario)

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

THEY TOLD US WE HAD CONQUERED TEN TIMES AS MANY PEOPLE EACH YEAR AS ARE KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS.

... If that's true, we have conquered ten years ago.

... Approximately 180,000 people would not have died of the disease.

... These were businesses, political and professional leaders.

... Approximately 3,000 children under the age of ten would not have died of leukemia and other forms of cancer.

... Approximately 50,000 women would not have died of cancer.

... Research leaders are confident that we will ultimately conquer cancer, but it will take a lot of time. Public donations can help shorten that time.

THE TREND OF PRICES

ALL THE widespread concern last year about the continued rise in prices, after a period of recession, the current Monthly Review of the Bank of Nova Scotia points out that the trend of world prices in the past twelve to eighteen months has been comparatively steady.

In large part, the Review says, this greater measure of price stability has stemmed from the combined effect of so-called "cost-push" and "demand-pull" and a more moderate rate of advance in most other goods and services.

Prices, of course, tend to be influenced greatly by specific conditions of production and in the business sphere it should be noted that price movements (particularly those of consumer items) usually lag quite notice-

SOUND RUMORS WHEN BACKING UP, MINDER JURY RECOMMENDS

no negligence found in death of father of 3

A coroner's jury in Minden Thursday recommended that horns should be sounded at all vehicles when they are backing up.

The inquest was called to enquire into the death of Yvonne Miller Hansen, 57, father of three children, who was killed Thanksgiving Day when the rear wheels of a gravel truck passed over him.

The jury ruled that Hansen came to his death when the rear wheels of a gravel truck being operated by Wallace McMichael, 29, of Haliburton, passed over him.

There was no negligence on the part of Wallace McMichael, the jury ruled.

Mr. Hansen was employed by Hay Limb Company, Haliburton, and McMichael was operating a gravel truck belonging to W. A. Curry of Haliburton at the time of the accident.

Gravel was being delivered to Hansen's cottage at Kenilworth when the tragedy occurred.

OPP Constable Harold Kennedy of the Haliburton detachment was the investigating officer. Coroner was L. H. Carroll, of Haliburton.

No place to tie up

It begins to look as though something will have to be done in Lindsay to accommodate horseback riders. . . .

Shown above is the second rider in recent days to come into town only to discover that there was no stabling post in the place. This rider is Ron Aldred of St. Patrick Street and his faithful steed is just about done in riding around town looking for a place at which to tie up.

"Don't be too hard on good old Dad, Ma"

Lindsay, Nov. 6 — (UPI)—Don't be too hard on good old Dad, Ma, if he runs off with some sweet young thing. . . .

Among other things, he looks at his wife and "realizes she is getting on."

It's all too much for the type of dad and that's where the "bride image" gets him into trouble.

Such a man needs help, Dr. Torrie writes, adding: "In the final analysis, the solution is always spiritual. The need for love is at the base of the middle-aged man's problem."

Pays $200, license suspended

A case which Magistrate R. I. Moore referred to as one of the worst cases of driving he has ever driven license on someone, was heard in Magistrate's Court on Friday.

Appearing before the court on charges of travelling at a greater speed than 50 mph and careless driving, was Michael L. Moore, 32, of Lindsay.

The accused pleaded not guilty but was convicted on both counts. On the first charge a fine of $70 or costs of $185.00 were imposed. On the second charge, a fine of $100 or costs was imposed. The magistrate also ordered the accused's driving license be suspended for six months.

OPP Constable Tom Fitzpatrick testified that he was on patrol on Highway 36 near the Pleasant Point turn on the evening of October 17th when he first saw the accused's vehicle travelling on the west shoulder of the road.

The officer told the court that during the ensuing chase speeds of between 90-95 mph were reached. "At the Chase Point the accused veered off the highway and went onto a side road," stated the witness.

Constable Fitzpatrick continued his evidence related how he managed to draw alongside the O'Leighin vehicle, a white van, on Queen Street. "When he saw my police flashers the accused gave the car more gas and roared away," the officer testified.

During the chase through town, speeds of 60 mph were reached. Constable Fitzpatrick declared and went on to state that the accused went through several stop signs before he was finally lost.

When the officer was asked why he had lost the accused, he explained he was obeying the stop signs as he refused to endanger other people's lives. "It's not possible for the court he had made a note of the license number of the accused's vehicle. This vehicle was later traced to the O'Leighin residence. "When the accused was questioned later he would only say he was only doing 70 mph," testified the officer.

Magistrate Moore said he was convinced there had been gross negligence on the part of the accused and he had no hesitation in finding him guilty on both counts.

Thunder Bridge wholly CNR responsibility — Victoria decides Trent Canyon Litter Cleanup

Near-capacity traffic reported for season; "just way we want it"

The Trent Canal System can no longer be regarded as a white elephant. That is the considered opinion of Clayton W. Hodgson, M.P. for this riding.

Addressing a meeting in Lindsay, Mr. Hodgson said that a few years ago there used to be about 25 boats lock through Fenelon Falls every summer. Last summer, he declared, 3,500 boats had been locked through, ranging in size from 10 horsepower outboards up to boats capable of carrying between 40 and 50 people.

Mr. Hodgson said great revenue was being derived from this water-borne tourist traffic and cited an instance last summer when he happened to be in Fenelon Falls and found with one of these voyagers. "How much would you spend up town today?" he asked the mariner tourist. Taking out his parking receipts, the tourist added them up and announced "About $100."

Mr. Hodgson said the canal system was now handling just about capacity traffic during the peak of the tourist season and that's just the way we want it.

Mr. Hodgson referred briefly to the need for better water level control measures and suggested that this was more efficiently handled when Ontario waterways were under the control of the province. He cited as an example the problem encountered with the Black River in North Ontario County each season when flooding deposited thousands of fish on adjacent fields.

During the past season continuing complaints of low water levels came in from Haliburton Highlands lakes.

A 13th badge Cub

There's a limit to how far one can go in the Wolf Cub movement and Ivan McLean has gone "about as far as he can go." . . . He has attained his 13th badge. He is shown above on the night of presentation in the March Memorial Hall. Another Lindsay Cub attained the same goal this week. He is Gary Courtenay, "Nate Bear," the Boy Scout. Speaking of Boy Scouts, it was stated in error in Thursday's paper that "Earl Kennedy" was moving into position for his Gold Cord award. This should have read "Earl Campbell". The error is regretted and good luck to Earl on his last test which, if he passes it successfully, will put him in line for the coveted award.

Noticed along the way

THAT . . .

A beautiful memorial widow has just been installed in St. Mary's Church. . . It is in memory of the late Mrs. McAuley who endeared himself to hundreds of people in Lindsay by his services in the official acts in a civic capacity as well as in the official opening ceremonies of Radio Station CKLY.

Rev. Donald McQueen is expected to make an announcement of considerable local interest in the foreseeable future.

There seems to be somewhat more money than there is of getting a wrastling match than there is in sponsoring Grand Old Opry. At least that was the case in Lindsay according to the Chamber of Commerce. It reports a profit of $257 on the wrestling show it staged and a loss of $100 on the Grand Old Opry show it sponsored. Well, tastes differ, said the alibi as he snuffed at a passing missionary's leg.

Mr. John Ewins of the New Royal Hotel, who is a derby's figure he'll wear his derby hat the next time he is going to be around the town Hall in Birmingham, England, especially if there's any to be political trouble around here. Ewins says the last time he did that someone put a bullet hole in it . . .

Must have mistaken him for a politician. Premier Lloyd George, he relates, played it quite the time . . . He disguised himself as a policeman and escaped the mob's fury.

Speaking of bowler or derby hats brings to mind the fact that the late Samuel Alcorn, ex-Mayor of Lindsay, was one of our years. He was one of the greatest boosters of Lindsay and of the province.

A native of Ireland, he loved to tell of his wonderful sales achievements in his business. And a nice man one couldn't find.

Oil burning space heaters are causing a fair amount of trouble in Lindsay these days. Another one kicked over the traces on Friday afternoon. Fortunately, the fire department got there in time and harnessed it up again. The heater was in the apartment owned by Mrs. E. M. McCall, 128 William St. north. Firemen told the lady that in cases such as the one experienced several women asking them to blow after after a young girl was strangled last March.

Although taken by surprise the bride thanked the guests in a few well chosen words, and the hostess served a delicious lunch.

Keep baking soda handy, oil space heater owners told

Owners of oil-burning space heaters are advised to keep a quantity of baking soda handy in case of fire. This advice was issued by Fire Chief Arnold Watson Friday following a space heater oil fire.

Warning

Chief Watson said the first essential in averting a space heater fire was to keep the pipes clean. "We strongly recommend that pipes be cleaned in the fall before the colder sets in," he declared the chief.

People lighting space heaters were advised by the fire chief to make sure that the heaters were well alight before leaving them. "In case of a fire, baking soda is a handy thing with which to douse it," added the chief.

Contrary to popular belief the Thunder Bridge, recently destroyed by fire, is under the jurisdiction of Victoria County Council.

At a meeting of the County Council Committee Friday, it was agreed that the responsibility for the rebuilding of the bridge rested wholly with the CNR.

County Clerk F. Weldon told "The Post" the committee had taken the matter under study and it had been agreed that the county had no responsibility concerning the bridge whatsoever.

The wooden bridge four miles from Lindsay was completely destroyed by fire on Sunday. An intensive investigation is underway.

Reabore

News for week ending Nov. 21
Mr. and Mrs. James Butler of R. R. One were recent Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Max Aldous and family. They attended the church service and Sunday school in the Reabore Baptist Church on the afternoon, and then, along with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Thurston enjoyed supper, and a time of fellowship afterwards, singing and recording some of the grand old gospel songs.

Prompt action by those in the home, the neighbours, and also the Lindsay Fire Department, averted a possibly serious fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Dowdow, recently. The pipes and chimney caught fire, but fortunately it did not get beyond control, though it was very hot, both fire and water damage.

Kathy Littlejohn entertained a few of her girl friends on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 14th who helped her celebrate her birthday.

Mr. Lorne Jones, Lindsay, was a supper guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Aldous and family on Wed. evening.

Several from this area attended the meeting held in the Legion Hall, Lindsay, to hear the new equalized system of assessment explained by Mr. Hall, the Victoria County Assessor. It is understood a large number of appeals have been lodged with the Township clerk, to be dealt with by the Court of Revision of the township of Ops.

The annual area canvas by representatives of the Reabore branch of the Bible Society is now on, and they ask that everyone give generously to this very important part of the Lord's work in providing translations of the Bible in more and more different languages and dialects. Incidentally there are yet hundreds of these in which there is not even one book of the Bible available, much less a whole Bible.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Miller and family have moved back into our community again. Several of our local deer hunters are away trying their luck at getting some special meat for the family table.

Judge tells county councillors unions have vested too much power in too few individuals

Judge J. A. McGibbon says he believes unions have vested too much power in too few individuals and that laws should be revised to change this situation. Victoria County Judge made his observations at the annual wardens' banquet in Cameron. (See below) fax excerpts from his address below.

It was a festive night at Cameron when Warden E. D. Murphy was host to an estimated 175 guests at the banquet which was catered by the Poulos Corners W.I. who served a delicious turkey dinner. (119H)

Guests were entertained by Mr. L. Looman, Kirkfield, with bagpipe selections, and there were vocal solos and duets by Malcolm Brad and sister Beverly with piano and guitar accompaniment. They later led in a community sing-song. Head guests table as introduced by Mr. Frank Weldon were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Ed. Murphy, Warden, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gostlin, ex-March, Lloyd Burrows, Mayor of Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert

A number of people would like to lay down on the job that this notice is here. ... The fire side has a particularly appealing quality just now and there is a tendency to shrink from leaving the cold, biting wind of a waning autumn. A parking meter on Kent St. seemed to be wrestling with a similar problem this morning ... It was laying, stretched out on the sidewalk, totally unconscious with the town's urgent need for funds to pay off its many mortgages. Up, meter, up, meter, the electrician dug your ground, open wide the mouth of your clocklike face and do your duty! Remember it is the motorist who lays the golden eggs and if you do not gather them, your's will be a dull outlook next spring. Just picture yourself for a moment after a winter of indolence ... Your mechanism rusted, your money shot, good rubber, vainly rovingly ... (3939)

REVISE TELEVISION REGULATIONS

Ottawa, Nov. 18.—(UPI)—The Board of Broadcast Governors today voted to revise the regulations which regulate its Canadian-contest and morning broadcast programs.

The regulations stated that stations must still carry 85 per cent Canadian programming, but that this would be within a four-week period of a one-week period as earlier proposed. But during the April 1, 1961—March 31, 1962 period—when competing stations will be going into operation—the stations will only be required to carry 45 per cent Canadian programs.

British and French programs will still count as 50 per cent Canadian, but a limit has been placed on their use. The stations cannot devote more than one-third of their total time to British programs nor more than one-quarter of their time to French programs.

Montreal, Nov. 18.—(UPI)—The Montreal Alouettes today signed 33-year-old Perry Moss as coach and general manager to a contract "for more than one year." Club president Ted Workman made the announcement in Montreal.

The commander of the NATO Atlantic Fleet says Soviet missile-firing submarines will be a threat to NATO within a year. Admiral Jerauld Wright told the NATO parliamentarians' conference in Washington that in view of the Soviet threat "drastic measures" are being taken to develop and improve anti-submarine defenses.

The western powers are reportedly nearly ready to propose a late April date for an East-West summit conference with Russia. American, British, French and West German representatives met in Washington to discuss the time and place for meeting Soviet Premier Khrushchev. The summit talks are expected to be held in Geneva.

The U.N. general assembly's 82-nation political committee began debate this morning (at 10:30 EST) on a world atomic ban proposal. India is leading a bloc of 20 Afro-Asians and Yugoslavia in demanding that all world powers stop nuclear testing. The move is believed to be aimed primarily at France, which plans its first atomic test next spring.

British West German pre-summit talks are reported making progress. West German Chancellor Adenauer and Prime Minister MacMillan called off today's formal working session and instead lunched together at the German Embassy in London. The two western leaders are expected to meet at a three-point agenda to be offered at an East-West summit conference with the Soviets.

The secretary to Sir Winston Churchill announces that the aged statesman has recovered from the slight illness which troubled him yesterday. The illness forced Churchill to cancel a meeting with Chancellor Adenauer—but it is said to be all over with now. However, Churchill—who celebrates his 85th birthday next week—has passed up this afternoon's session of parliament.

Woman receives nasty fall

A Lindsay woman is reported to have received a nasty fall on Lindsay St. today when she slipped on the sharply sloping wet sidewalk just north of the New Royal Hotel.

The sidewalk at that point is graded steeply to a laneway and becomes extremely hazardous under icy conditions.

Kirkfield man injured

Mr. Arnold Carey, R. R. 1, Kirkfield, was rushed to hospital in Grilla this morning following a motor vehicle accident.

A spokesman at the hospital disclosed Mr. Carey sustained injuries to his ribs and left ankle.

Further details regarding the accident were not available at press time.

Out of control, car crashes Rosedale bridge

A car being operated by Mr. Jas. Padgett, 14 Glenelg Street West, Lindsay, was damaged extensively when it went out of control and smashed into the steel railing of the Rosedale bridge Sunday morning.

Mr. Padgett, alone in the vehicle at the time of the accident, was shaken up, but sustained no personal injuries. Fenelon Falls OPP detachment investigated.

INQUEST CALLED AFTER HUNTING FATALITY

Crown Attorney L. W. Jordan announced this morning an inquest into the death of 54-year-old Chas. Darwent, John Street, Gravenhurst, will be held shortly.

Mr. Darwent died almost instantly when a rifle he was reloading discharged.

The accident took place in Dalton Township north of Kirkfield, Monday.

OPP of the Fenelon Falls detachment carried out investigations into the hunting incident.

UP HOT DOWN

The number of jobless persons in October totalled 237,000—up 24 thousand from the previous month, but well down from the same period last year. The federal government, which released the report today, said the increase in unemployment was "moderate." It said those seeking jobs represented 3.1 per cent of the working force compared with 3.4 per cent in September and 5.1 per cent a year earlier.—(UPI)

Architect's Central Core Design Cuts Cost of Three-Bedroom House

Architect Alan Hanna of Windsor, has incorporated the modern "interior core" design into this three-bedroom bungalow which groups together the kitchen, bath, bedroom, entrance and hall. This central core arrangement allows for a more compact concentration of all plan areas.

Ample light and ventilation is provided by the use of mechanical exhaust fans and skylights. The living-dining room overlooks both the front and back gardens while the bedrooms have better than average views.

The total floor area is 1,122 square feet and the exterior dimensions are 43 feet by 29 feet, four inches. Working drawings for the house, known as Design 280, may be obtained from Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation at minimum cost.

The third meeting of the King Albert Home and School Association opened with the singing of "O Canada," followed by the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. McLean read the Home and School creed. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mr. T. Cooke and approved. Mrs. McCallum then gave the treasurer's report.

The annual Fun Fair to be held in February was discussed and Mrs. Wm. Langdon was nominated to act as convener.

Mrs. O. McGill gave an interesting report on the Home and School Conference that was held in Cobourg.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. McLean, programme convener, who in turn introduced the guest speakers. Five Chief Watson and Mr. C. Jeffries of the Vicking Ltd.

A film was shown by Mr. Jeffries on the new and much improved system of Mouth to Mouth Respiration. This newer method excels the Arm Lift technique, with only a few simple instructions to adhere to.

No 1. Place victim on back and tilt head upwards.

2. Close nostrils with one hand and with the other hand insert thumb in the mouth and pull tongue and lower mandible forward clearing mouth of mucus, sand or any foreign debris.

3. Breathe into victims mouth twelve times to the minute for an adult and with a child short shallow breaths should be administered. Continue this treatment until business disappears and natural colour has been restored which may be a matter of minutes or hours.

After the conclusion of this film Mrs. McLean thanked Mr. Jeffries.

Read The Sign First

Traffic in London is just as confusing as it is in most big cities.

Traffic policemen couldn't make up their minds to route traffic near the Houses of Parliament recently.

"They put up signs reading: 'Keep Right.' Then they put up signs reading: "Keep Left," then they changed their minds again and posted "No Route signs."

"In telling my... Traffic, bear in mind that I always like to tell the audience before leaving myself..."

CANADA STIL LEADS

Team Captain Pedro Mayorga brought Argentina its first victory in the Royal Horse Show by turning in the only faultless performance in last night's international individual jumping event in Toronto. His triumph on Stromboli broke a third place tie with Brazil, and left Argentina only two points behind the United States which has second place in overall team standings. Canada is still in first place with 29 points.

END OF RING CAREER FOR DURELLE

Yvonne Durille is returning to the Martimes to play defence for the Moncton Hawks hockey team after being knocked out in the 12th round last night by Canadian heavyweight champion George Chuvalo.

The loss may mean the end of the ring career of the 30-year-old fisherman from Baie Ste. Anne, New Brunswick.

Fenelon Takes Senior Championship in Round Robin Volleyball

Friday 13th was a superstitious day but that did not stop our school from holding a round robin volleyball tournament with Haliburton, Lakefield and Bancroft schools.

There was an exciting day around our school. Very few classes were held as every student wanted to get down to the gym to cheer the Fenelon girls on.

Bancroft took the Fenelon championship while our Fenelon team received the Senior championship.

The senior winners will attend a tournament in Belleville this Saturday for all senior champion teams across Ontario.

Junior scores with Fenelon competing:
Fenelon 31 Lakefield 13
Fenelon 24 Haliburton 12
Bancroft 26 Fenelon 14

Senior scores with Fenelon competing:
Fenelon 40 Bancroft 13
Fenelon 45 Lakefield 13
Fenelon 23 Haliburton 19

We hope our seniors will do their best in representing F.F.S. at Belleville.

Champ Scores KO In Final Round

Over 10,000 fans were on hand at Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens last night to witness a bruising, bloody battle for the Canadian Heavyweight Championship.

A short right hook early in the 12th and final round of the cruel fight proved to be the winning punch for George Chuvalo.

Yvon Durelle, the fighting fisherman from Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., was dropped six times by his younger opponent but the courageous Maritimer refused to quit until knocked unconscious in the final stanza.

Both boxers absorbed terrific punishment and it was hard to detect which fighter suffered the most cuts.

Both men suffered injuries to their eyes—Durelle's right eye was closed early in the fight, that score was evened when a nasty cut was opened over Chuvalo's right eye in one of the later rounds.

Waste of time unless more guidance given, Truman states

Col. C. T. Truman, Victoria County Civil Defence coordinator, tendered his resignation to the committee at a meeting in Lindsay Thursday.

Announcing his decision to resign from the post he has held since 1954, Col. Truman said next year's County Council would have to make the decision whether they wanted to continue the civil defence programme or drop the idea altogether. Col. Truman told members of County Council that if they decided to retain the program they would have to hire a full time coordinator. Mr. Truman disclosed he was not willing to undertake the position.

The committee was told by Col. Truman that until the federal government gives more guidance, it was a complete waste of time to deal municipalities to worry too much about the civil defence program.

Col. Truman revealed that in January of next year, a policy statement may be issued by the government. "If after that time, County Council should decide to continue its program, I suggest they hire a full time coordinator and give him the same kind of authority as I have," said the speaker.

"There is no laid down policy in this area," said Col. Truman. "We in this area have an organization which can be proud." "An organization that is resigning the coordinator status."

Col. Truman said there are over 100 enrolled persons in the organization in this area. Percentage-wise that figure is as good as any in the province, he declared.

Members learned there are many persons in the area who are trained in various aspects of civil defence. At the present time there are first aid and home nursing courses being carried on in the area.

Reeve Bruce Maidens, chairman of the committee, said he was interested in this area for Col. Truman to keep the job on a full-time basis. "Unfortunally," he says, "no one will receive Mr. Maidens also said it was now up to the county to decide whether they wanted to continue on or not in the program."

During the course of the meeting a report from the government, regarding the latest civil defence matters was given. After several aspects of the report had been dealt with, Mr. Maidens said it was his opinion the report was out of date before it was written. The colonial alleged there had been no change in the situation since the authorities for the past 18 months.

In a question and answer period these places of information came to light. Not one auxiliary policeman has been trained in this area for over two years. In the event of an emergency brought about by a nuclear explosion, the only class in the area is a reception for evacuees. The Lindsay Fair Ground is one of the sites which would house the evacuees. Plans for the new reported to be swaying towards the establishment of bomb shelters. The local civil defence committee is in the field of communications. A

Subdivision water service trip to Council - Sinclair

A last ditch effort by Permanent Investment Corporation President Neville Stoller to secure water services for the proposed Springdale Garden subdivision, north of town met with delaying action last week.

Mr. Stoller together with Real Estate Lawyer Lawson, Lawyer Cunningham and Civil Engineer Mackey, appeared before the Lindsay Board of Water Commissioners to ascertain that board's feelings re services for the proposed subdivision.

PIC President Neville Stoller told board members he had been informed by the Council it would not sell services to outside municipalities. The Council has been asked to direct the work service is wish to know if water is desired in those services, declared.

The president said he was present at the meeting to inform the board of the matter, to find out what was in the committee's mind with regard to the supplying of water to the proposed subdivision.

Commissioner D. Sinclair said the board could not say "That is strictly up to Town Council," he said. Board members, including Mr. Reynolds told the board he had heard nothing regarding the supplying of services to the subdivision.

Mr. Mel Cunningham said he was under the impression that the board would have to ascertain whether services could be supplied before they made a decision on the matter.

It was suggested by Mr. Stoller that the distance from the subdivision to the water and sewage supply was only 1,100 feet. Mr. Stoller said he was referring to the six-inch line at the sewage plant which it was hoped would be the connecting line.

When Commissioner Sinclair said the only thing he knew of the subdivision was what he had read in the press, he was told by Mr. Cunningham that he did not believe all he read in the newspapers. (Ed note: The article in this issue appearing in this newspaper was written by the Permanent Investment Corporation.)

After further discussion the board agreed they would not visit Town Council of their decision.

Rear end Pileup

A rear-end collision east of Oremare early Thursday evening resulted in damage estimated at $700 to the vehicle involved.

Operators of the vehicles were Jack Mitchell, Oremare, and a driver from the highest authorities for the past 18 months.

OPP Constable B. McGowney was the investigating officer. He wrote that after two hours of discussion, the meeting adjourned. The only class in the area is a reception for evacuees. The Lindsay Fair Ground is one of the sites which would house the evacuees. Plans for the new reported to be swaying towards the establishment of bomb shelters. The local civil defence committee is in the field of communications. A

Glenam - resigns, give me adequate

Glenam (PNS) - The presence of large congregations of Knox Church, Glenora, was celebrated in two special services on Sunday, despite weather conditions, a splendid crowd was in attendance at both services. Not only representing the congregation, but also neighboring churches, many of the Fenelon Falls dispensed with their services to allow members to attend services at Glenam.

Rev. Gregor Smith, M.A. (formerly of Grass Hill, near Woodville and well known in the community) but now Moderator of the Synod, was guest speaker at both services, and as well as splendid sermons at both services, he explained the origin of the Symbol of the Protestant Church.

A new way to catch a crocodile is reported by a follower of this rather hazardous sport. Equipment for hunting crocs in the new system includes pole, blanket, pair of binoculars and a butterfly net.

It was a most appropriate symbol at the time on account of the religious wars that have been going on since the reformed Church was not consumed through a great blow to the Protestant faith.

He told the story of Moses in the desert who saw a bush burning yet not consumed and as he gazed in wonderment he heard a voice saying: The place which thou standest is Holy Ground and also told of Moses' interview with God. William and Mary came to the throne of England in 1688 and the Protestant Church was not consumed. A Battle of Bush appeared in 1690 at a crest of the Acts of the General Assembly of Scotland.

The beautiful baskets of flowers, adorned with the white and blue streamers were placed in memory of the late Stewart Morrison (a member of the managing board of the Knox Church over a period of years) by his wife, Bernaby.

Also by the husband and family of Mr. Robert McIntyre in Lindsay in memory of Mrs. McIntyre (the former Sadie McLean) who died in 1958 and the worshipped prior to her marriage.

The choir rendered several anthems on the occasion of several services. The choir was also the quartette comprised of Grantie Mackay, Howard Nesbitt, Ken Jones and James R. Nesbitt, also contributed a number of appreciated songs for which all were accompanied by Miss Sandra Hargrave.

Ivan MacMillan, J. D. MacMillan, Bert Boyle and Clifford Hargrave received the offering and prior to the offering Rev. Smith extended the word of Robert McIntyre in Lindsay in memory of Mrs. McIntyre (the former Sadie McLean) who died in 1958 and the worshipped prior to her marriage.

Assessment hike likely issue

A two-way fight for the reeve ship appears likely in the forthcoming Op Township election.

Mr. Wilbert Thorn, a member of Council for the past ten years, told this paper he would be opposing, Renee Herman Buckley, who will be seeking his fifth term of office in that capacity.

Mr. Thorn said he expects the turnout at Saturday's nomination meeting will be among the largest in the last few years in view of the recent hike in assessment to many cities of the township.

Mr. Herman Buckley this morning confirmed he would be seeking reelection as reeve of the township.

TO ADD WEIGHT

The thin person who wishes to add weight should follow in the reverse the advice given to the heavier. Plenty of cream, milk with a little added cream, second helpings if desired at mealtimes, and between-meal snacks are helpful, providing they don't spoil the appetite for regular meals. Base the diet on Canada's Food Rules for good health.

would mean an even greater field of postage would be collected from the phone company. He claims he also read over the instructions posted on the phone booth, and even scanned the directory for some hint as to how he should go about returning the die to the company without added expense to himself. All to no avail.

Still searching for a solution to his problem he says he gave some consideration to dropping the die back in the telephone booth, but rejected this because he was afraid the presence of the unaccounted for die might upset the company's bookkeeper, and even place temptation in his way. All other avenues of thought leading to the convenient reimbursement of the company explored, he is reported to have reached the conclusion that the phone company might be happier with about ten cents worth of advice. "I am now understood to be drafting a letter to the local manager recommending that instructions be posted in phone booths on how to be honest with oneself and the company under such circumstances. Just for good measure, he has indicated his intention of stretching his original ten cents worth of advice and bit tossing in another five cents worth. This, he declares, will take the form of a suggestion that more people might be inclined to use pay telephones if the supply of oxygen was not so short-lived. "I think," he says he is going to write, "that there should be a smoke stack on every pay booth because so many people smoke nowadays and it gets awfully foggy in those places after a few minutes concentrated talking and puffing."

SPORTS ROUNDUP

(United Press International)

NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE

A pair of games that had been doing very well lately will meet tonight in a National Hockey League game. The fourth-place Boston Bruins will meet the fifth-place New York Rangers at New York. Last night all six NHL games were tied.

HORVATH STILL LEADS SCORING RACE

Bronco Horvath has slowed up a little in his fight for the National Hockey League scoring title, but he's still on top. The big Boston center travelled at a goal-a-game clip through his first 16 games, but had to wait for a point and two assists in his last two outings. Horvath has collected 30 points on 17 goals and 13 assists — six points ahead of Gordie Howe of Detroit.

AMERICAN HOCKEY LEAGUE

Two games are scheduled in the American Hockey League tonight. Cleveland is at Buffalo and Hershey is at Springfield. In the only action last night, last place Quebec rose up to hand Rochester a 2-0 beating.

PHIL HILL WILL DRIVE IN GRAND PRIX

Veteran auto racer Phil Hill of Santa Monica, Calif., will drive a Ferrari in the Dec. 12 Grand Prix of the United States race at Sebring, Fla. Earlier, the Ferrari company had announced that Hill would not be in the event. However, the Italian auto company has since added a fourth car and asked Hill to drive it. Hill is currently ranked fourth in standing for the world racing championship.

CLEAN SWEEP

Brookmeade Stables' "Sword Dancer" has made a clean sweep of the year's major U.S. racing honors. The colt was chosen "horse of the year," and champion of the three-year-old division. He was also named champion "warrior" was named the best two-year-old and "My Dear Girl" was voted the best three-year-old filly.

ODDS ON BOMBERS JUMP

Toronto—UPI—The odds on the Winnipeg Blue Bombers to win the Grey Cup have jumped after the bookmakers saw Bud Grant prepare his defending champion Grey Cuppers yesterday. It will be the third straight meeting for the Bombers with the Hamilton Tigers in Saturday's football classic.

MOORE NAMED AS LOGICAL CONTENDER

World heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson has named Archie Moore as logical contender for his crown in case ex-champion Floyd Patterson rejects a return title match in New York City. Speaking in Geneva, Switzerland — where he'll live for a month to escape the clutches of U.S. tax collectors — Johansson said, "I insist that my first defense be in New York City, whether Patterson wants to fight there or not." He added, "I think Archie Moore, who lives in San Diego, California, is world light-heavyweight champion. SQUAW VALLEY OLYMPICS

There is still plenty of housing accommodation available for the 1990 Olympic games at Squaw Valley, Calif. This announcement was made by a spokesman for the chamber of commerce in nearby North Lake. Some reports recently had said all accommodation in the area have already been reserved. The spokesman reported accommodation is still available for several thousand visitors.

FIGHTING FISHERMAN RETIRES FROM RING

Canada's fighting fisherman, Yvon Durelle of Baie Ste. Anne, New Brunswick, officially retired from the ring today.

The 38-year-old fighter, get together with his manager Chris Shaban in Moncton to send a letter of retirement to the commissioner of the Canadian Boxing Federation, Gene Letourneau, in Quebec City.

In his 14-year fight career, Durelle held the Canadian middleweight championship, went up into the light heavyweight division to take the Canadian and British Empire titles and came within inches of grabbing the world light heavyweight title from Archie Moore.

The Baie Ste. Anne boxer never lacked confidence. Last week in Toronto he took a beating in an attempt to win the Canadian heavyweight title from George Chuvalo of Toronto. Durelle was knocked out in the final round of the twelve-round match.

After the Toronto fight, Durelle said it was the end.

In Moncton today, Durelle said he has no more ring aspirations although he may get through the ropes again for exhibition bouts.

Ottawa Assistant Coach Looks for High Scoring Game in Grey Cup

George Ierling, who knows a play book Gilchrist, now the contestants as well as any one, looks for a relatively high scoring Grey Cup game Saturday between the Hamilton Tigers and Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

"I don't look for a low scoring game," the Ottawa Rough Riders assistant coach said in an interview. "Both clubs have adequate defenses, but both have a varied enough offense to do quite a bit of scoring."

Toronto, who spent the first half of the season trying to beat Winnipeg in Regina and the last half plotting Ottawa strategy against the Tigercats gave the western champion Blue Bombers the edge on offense. He added, the Tigercats who squeaked past Ottawa in the Big Four final, may be slightly stronger on defense.

He called the Winnipeg offense "the best in the country." Quicker than a flash, Plon was a more dangerous running threat than the injured Jim Van Pelt, he said, and, while he was not Van Pelt's equal as a passer, "He's not a poor passer by any means."

Toronto said the addition of speedy Carver Shannon and the return to health of Canadian star Gerry James has strengthened an already potent Bomber running attack. He added that Perrel Funtun, a late-season addition from the National Football League, has improved their passing.

Terpitz said the failure to 40 Revision Court appeals here, Ops expects estimated 80

Some 40 appeals were dealt with by the Lindsay Court of Revision which sat Monday afternoon. Assessment Commissioner Don Toffenreid said most of the appeals were concerning the value of school support and rebates. They all got the nod of approval by the court, he reports.

All the appeals before the court were dealt with at last night's sitting.

80 In Ops

Speaking with Mr. Elwood Smith, Ops. Township Clerk, this morning, it was learned that about 80 appeals have been registered by citizens with regard to their assessment. Mr. Smith said the date of the Court of Revision hearings have not yet been set for December 9-10. The court will sit all day.

Lindsay WI Held In Town Hall

The monthly meeting of the Lindsay W.I. was held in the Town Hall, Lindsay, recently, with the president, Mrs. L. Hutton in the chair. The meeting commenced with the singing of the Opening Ode, followed by Mr. May Stewart Collett and the Lord's Prayer repeated by the members. The subject of the roll call was "How to Find Time for Leisure" and the suggestions on the subject were very varied. Mrs. Hutton welcomed a visitor to the meeting, Mrs. Snelling from Crossland. The secretary, Mrs. J. Rogers read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved. Mrs. Hutton reported a satisfactory financial statement, including a very interesting reading on the telephone service during the years 1875 and 1887, and described how some apparatus had been set up at the Falls at Niagara when the roar of the Falls could be heard by telephone.

Mrs. H. Taylor gave her report on the district meeting held at the Provincial Building. Mrs. J. Griffiths, Hamilton Research convenor, gave a very interesting reading on the telephone service during the years 1875 and 1887, and described how some apparatus had been set up at the Falls at Niagara when the roar of the Falls could be heard by telephone.

Mrs. A. Williams, Agriculture & Canadian Industries convenor, gave a very interesting reading on the Royal Agriculture in which the referee received special attention. Mrs. E. Randall, Current Events convenor, reported a scheme which was in operation in Denmark whereby prisoners, who were willing to learn something, were given the right to make books that had been used by the blind children at Brampton.

He was in his 64th year. Resting at J. Smith Funeral Home, Lindsay, on Saturday, Nov. 28, 1959, was one of the funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 25th, at Raptist Church, Lindsay. Interment in the Union Cemetery, Port Hope.

Maidens says he won't contest reeveship again

Mayor indicates he'll run again

Reeve Bruce Maidens plans to step down and Deputy-Reeve Pierre aims to go up the local political ladder. That is the latest news on the forthcoming municipal elections.

Reeve Maidens addressing the last 1959 session of Victoria County Council, said he would not be contesting the reeveship in the forthcoming Lindsay election. However, Mr. Maidens indicated he might qualify to contest a seat as councillor.

It is reported that deputy-revee Pierre will if nominated, contest the reeveship. It is understood that the only member of the present council in a position to be able to contest the seat being vacated by Mr. Pierre would be Councillor J. McQuarrie. In some quarters it is deemed highly improbable that Mr. McQuarrie will seek the higher office in view of the extra burden of work it would place on his shoulders.

Meanwhile there do not appear to be any dark horses on the horizon willing to contest the mayoralty. In an interview with "The Post" this week Mayor Burrows said he will run for a further term as mayor if nominated.

First Major Bonspiel Slated for Dec. 5th

In his latest press release just to hand, Mr. Alf Simpson of the Lindsay Curling Club, reminds members of the many fine bonspiel dates which are scheduled for the season.

SILVERWOOD'S MIXED SPIEL

The first "Silverwood" Bonspiel of the season is to be played on December 5th. This is always a very popular bonspiel, and only a few vacancies are open for entries. So if you have any ideas relative to taking home the Silverwood Trophy, get your entry in at the earliest possible moment. Even if you have some piece of bad luck you would fail to finish in the money, you can bank on an excellent day's sport in curling.

Robert was of quiet disposition and was widely and favorably known in our midst. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife Iva, one son Ross and two daughters, Maria and Betty Lou, also his mother, Mrs. Edward Gill, of Lindsay, and two brothers, Vernon of Penel- lons Falls, Mitchell of Lindsay, and a sister Kilda (Mrs. Scott MacLennan) of Whyby.

The funeral was held from the United Church, Gooderham, on Saturday, Oct. 31, 1959, at a deep gloom over the entire village. The hymn "O God Our Help in Ages Past" was sung. Comforting words were spoken by the pastor to a large number present.

Many floral tributes were a token of the high esteem in which he was held.

The interment was in Gooderham Cemetery.

The pallbearers were A. Gill, N. Gill, F. White, S. Madill, V. Raby and M. White.

Lindsay man addresses guild

Mr. J. W. Gravestock of Lindsay was in Toronto last week where he addressed members of the "The Guild for Color Photography." He showed color slides of some of the many rare flowers and plants he has found growing in his district. At a recent contest over 200 slides were entered and Mr. Gravestock was one of the few ribbon awardees.

QUICK ACTION

Patrons at a pub in Brighton, England, were prepared to see a very true Englishman—for the emergency, Flames broke out as they leisurely sipped brew. Quick action was called for—by the customers downed by flames by squinting beer on it.

Court told beer hurled from fleeing vehicle

The story of a car chase through Lindsay streets during which beer bottles were tossed from a vehicle and speeds of 87 mph were reached, was unfolded in Court here Monday. Seven Lindsay youths on arraignment charged on indictment with charges of obtaining liquor under the age of 21.

The driver of the vehicle—Robert David Archer R. I. Traynor—faced an additional charge of careless driving. The accused all entered pleas of guilty to the charges.

Appearing before Magistrate R. I. Moore were: Dennis V. Clifford, W. Smith, Glen P. Flaherty, Paul I. Traynor, Raymond W. Morden and Maurice L. Imeson. Constable Ross Bailey testified he and Constable William Bowes were on patrol in the cruiser in the early hours of the morning of November 14th when they saw a vehicle parked on the Lindsay parking lot.

Continuing his evidence, the officer related how when the car was moving it suddenly sped off along Kent Street. Constable Bailey told the court that he was following the seven youths travelling along Victoria Ave. S. Beer bottles were thrown from the vehicle.

Giving details of the ensuing chase, the officer said that after taking a corner at an estimated 25 mph, the vehicle travelled along Lindsay St. S. at an estimated 60 mph.

The "vehicle pulled some two feet over the centre line travelling along a portion of Lindsay Street," the officer testified.

The vehicle was finally stopped some two miles past the Trans-Canada traffic control lights after speeds of 87 miles an hour had been recorded, the officer told the court.

In answer to a question, the officer said the condition of the youths varied "some were almost intoxicated," he testified.

Archer told the court he purchased a case of six pints of beer from someone at the Lindsay busy parking lot. He told the court he paid $2 for the beer.

In reply to a question from the magistrate, the youths said they had just taken the tops off the bottles when the cruiser appeared on the scene.

All of the accused told the court they had been drinking at the dance prior to the appearance of the police.

The magistrate told the accused he would have to send them to jail for two months until they could find someone to have given them the liquor at the dance. He later released and fined the youths ranging from $25 to $30.

Archer was convicted on the careless driving charge and a fine of $25 plus costs was imposed. The magistrate ordered the accused's permit suspended for 90 days.

The Provincial Showman Hunter had asked that a suspension be considered by the court.

Greenbank youth wins RWF's Lawara trophy

Mr. John Leask, Greenbank, finished first in the Port Perry Club (Cull) entitling him to Dr. McMaster's prize for proficiency. He won the top show trophy for the Lawara trophy. He also was the champion show club show at the Scott Fair. A few years ago he was Provincial Showman for Boys and Girls classes in the Guernsey Breed. Winning two such prizes in two different breeds is considered unique.

At the Royal Winter Fair he was awarded with the Rose and Alder Farm. This herd was awarded both Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor honors.

THAT

The Old Farmer's Almanac contains a couple of items of interest for the current period in the year. Of the weather it has this to say: Clear air is heard to protect their face from winter's icy blasts: It was over 600 years ago that boards were first shaved, in 1357 to be exact.

A lot of men living in 1959 wish the razor had never been invented. They regard as the one of their greatest great-waster of time, especially in the morning. They say, how uncomplicated life would have been in the morning for the average male if someone hadn't come up with the idea that he would be shaved.

Some of them without a beard. What a shameful thing it is that he should have to do it as carefully as he does.

The inventor of the razor man could have enjoyed as much as 15 minutes more of his shaving and he would have avoided the great frustration encountered when he is interrupted half-way through a shave with the announcement that junior wants to be in the bathroom.

This is a more painful experience than the one in which the barber shaves than for the one who has gone modern and uses an electric shaver.

He can resume the operation, the bath is soaked and the hair on his face feels as though it has just been tanned.) Then too, he wouldn't have had to worry about what the barber or he should use. . . . This has become very complicated in the last few years when many razor manufacturers vying with the makers of electric razors for the shaver's dollar.

The situation is further complicated by the variety of razors, shaving creams, etc., and the fact that many men like to retain that schoolboy face the girls allegedly prefer to the more manly, bristly type of face it recedes in the years. . . .

On what shave or men with the shavers?

It isn't only in the realm of shaving that things occasionally become complicated. This can happen in hunting and in the stories which are written about hunters. . . . The Dept. of Lands and Forests at Ottawa can vouch for that. It says it records the names of hunters following the appearance of an article in the press on other day telling about the shooting of a moose and how the meat from it was developed and sold as of game records, the department sets the matter straight in the following item. Captioned and Forests.

Premier wires Mayor fixing hearing time

January 14th is the date when Lindsay's annexation application is to be heard by the Ontario Municipal Board.

Mayor Lloyd Burrows said early Tuesday afternoon received a telegram from Premier Leslie Frost that morning stating the hearing will be held in the Lindsay Town Hall on the morning of January 14th.

Lindsay Town Council applied to the Ont. Municipal Board about two months ago for a hearing of their annexation application. It is expected to annex 3,800 acres of neighbouring land in Ops Township.

No official reaction has as yet been forthcoming from Ops Township Council regarding the proposal.

40 witnesses presentation of rescuator

Some 40 persons attended a ceremony in the Lindsay Fire Hall Monday evening when an electric rescuator valued at $1,000 was presented to the department by Mrs. M. DeGroot, president Lindsay Kin-

In a short address, Mrs. DeGroot said the rescuator will become part of the equipment used in the town of a portable water and will be used to restore breathing to drowning victims in the area as well as those who might be overcome by smoke.

Councillor Mel DeGroot acknowledged the gift on behalf of the town.

Following a demonstration of the new piece of equipment the audience enjoyed a social hour.

"Moose Case at Haliburton," it reads:

The procedure in dealing with the moose case at Haliburton was quite some different than in which the article in Saturday's edition of the Post. It has now been brought to the attention of the town officials that the carcass of the moose was confiscated immediately after it was shot and a charge laid on the hunter who shot it. He has already paid a fine of $100 and costs.

The moose meat was parcelled, and turned over to Lieutenant Thompson of the Salvation Army who distributed it to indigent families receiving relief in Haliburton.

State game official at Lindsay, Mr. J. W. Dwyer, has now to shoot something without knowing what he is shooting, and he could just as easily have been another hunter that he shot or some domestic animal.

The hunter who shot the moose in this case was William Martin, 409 Brock St., Smith, Whyby. He was hunted in the Ops Township of Haliburton County.

De Note. Hunting stories are popular other day telling about the shooting of a moose and how the meat from it was developed and sold as of game records, the department sets the matter straight in the following item. Captioned and Forests.

Chemical warfare will be worry of younger generation—Pearkes

Hamilton, Nov. 24.—(UPI)—Defense Minister George Pearkes says the younger generation will be worried by the use of chemical warfare, he says will be quite dangerous in the coming years.

Pearkes told the McMaster University Political Club in Hamilton last night that "there is a question of the development of the Prairie provinces in the future. They are studying defense because there are also co-operative movements in Britain and the United States to study this type of warfare," he added.

He told club members "our main worry right now is the use of chemical warfare. It has been launched, we have little or no defense against it. We must do everything we can to protect ourselves from being launched."

On the question of civil defense, Pearkes said "there are a few hundred centers which have sufficient warning. But we have means of evacuation. But he added," our civil authorities have got to train large numbers of people in order to protect against a possible nuclear war."

THE CLOSED CASKET

The vehicle casualties have become so frequent in recent times that they have come to be regarded as common-place occurrences, events which we read about and hear about but which somehow seem remote. They do not affect us personally, and therefore we take an impersonal view of their happening. . . . We are not directly affected and we tend to take the position that we are somehow going to be miraculously spared such unpleasantness. We assume that it is always "the other fellow" who is going to meet with disaster on the highway and byways. As a result of our thinking some of us continue to take chances while operating motor vehicles which we wouldn't if the cold hand of tragedy on the road had ever rested on our shoulder. Nor would we be so apt to take needless risks while driving if we had ever had occasion to stand in the midst of the sorrowing and suffering which such disasters inflict.

On Thursday a young man of 20 years was borne to his last resting place, the victim of a motor vehicle accident. One moment he was in life, a short time later, he was dead from terrible wounds.

On Wednesday saddened relatives and friends of the family assembled at the funeral home to comfort the survivors and pray for the soul of the departed. His casket was closed.

No words can express the anguish which was written on the face of this boy's mother as she stood shocked and distraught by the bier of her dead son. The life she had brought into the world was at an end, suddenly and before it had reached maturity.

To witness these things is a sobering experience and one which does not quickly fade from memory. If more people could be impressed with the need for extreme caution behind the wheel of today's fast-moving vehicles, fewer such incidents would be recorded.

This is not written to suggest any responsibility for the tragedy to which reference is made, but merely to point out that traffic accidents may seem remote and impersonal but that they really are ever-present threats to our personal safety and that of those whom we love.

The next time you are inclined to take a chance on the road first take time to think of "the closed casket". It's very final, my friend.

DEFICIENCY PAYMENTS

On January 11, 1990, the new system of deficiency payments to hog raisers announced by the Agricultural Stabilization Board will become effective. The current deficiency plan, published by the Canadian Hogs of Commerce, in a discussion of the pros and cons of various means of stabilization, points out that the new plan will be a "pay-as-you-go" plan. Each year, the plan, has the approval of the experts who have been reviewing commercial and agricultural policies for GATT.

because this type of support does not increase the cost to consumers.

The money going into effect next year consists of a direct payment to farmers of the difference between the average market price and the support price, and the amount of the subsidy is under direct budgetary supervision. Provided the demand for a commodity is sufficiently responsive to price changes, the Letter says, the effect on consumer price is an important consideration in determining the method of subsidizing it.

Under the present method of support by government purchase, large surplus stocks of pork have been accumulated, the Letter says. At October 1, total stocks stood at 82.5 million pounds, excluding canned pork. It seems unlikely that the Agricultural Stabilization Board will dispose of its pork holdings without considerable loss.

Pork is perhaps the most difficult of the commodities to control, because the production of hogs is volatile, the Letter says. And other critical commodities which require close study are eggs and dairy products.

CIVIL DEFENSE OR DEFENSELESS CIVILIANS?

Can citizens of the federal government of the federal government's plans to establish regional centres across the country to coordinate national survival efforts in the event of a nuclear attack.

J. F. Wallace, an official of the federal government's emergency measures organization, outlined the plans to provincial representatives, federal government officials and members of the three-way committee at the Federal Civil Defense College in Annapolis, Ont.

Wallace said the broad details of the plans were outlined to the House of Commons by Prime Minister John Diefenbaker earlier this year.

The federal government previously announced that the army and the federal government would take the major responsibility in the event of a nuclear attack, instead of the then-existing civil defense organizations. The government's switch in policy has been roundly criticized by several civil defense agencies.

Wallace said of the centres to serve as regional headquarters for the federal government in the event of an attack, have already been selected. They are Vancouver, Winnipeg, Toronto, Montreal and Halifax. The others will be named later, he said.

"The purpose of these regional emergency measures offices is to coordinate federal government planning at the provincial level should a nuclear attack occur." The offices would consult with the provincial governments and give assistance in their emergency planning.

Under the plans which became official Sept. 1, a regional officer will be appointed for each province.

Wallace said these officers would act as coordinating link between the provinces and the federal government in peacetime. In the event of a nuclear attack, he added, the officers would assume the role of provincial authority in civil defense if Ottawa were cut off from the province.

He said that a dozen federal government departments and agencies concerned in making plans for the federal government to function in an emergency.

EACH YEAR AT THIS TIME . . .

Each year at this time, the federal tax liability takes a sudden jump as early darkness and slippery roads combine to make driving conditions the most hazardous of the year, the All Canada Insurance Federation warns.

Safe winter driving demands extra precautions and the Federation, representing more than 250 fire, casualty and automobile insurance firms, offers these suggestions to the motorists:

1. Slow down. "Normal" speeds are excessive on slippery streets.
2. Watch carefully for pedestrians who may be dressed in dark clothing and unable to see because of scarves and parkas.
3. If you expect to do a considerable amount of driving under adverse conditions, invest in snow tires or chains.
4. If your car skids, turn your wheels in the direction of the skid but do not use your brakes.
5. When stopping on a slippery surface, pump your brakes rather than applying steady pressure.
6. To start on an icy surface, use second or high gear to maintain traction.
7. If you are not sure if the road is slippery, try your brakes while travelling not faster than five or ten miles an hour.
8. Be aware of slippery spots beneath bridges or overpasses where the sun has not melted the ice.
9. Make sure that your car's muffled, muffler and tailpipe are in good condition. Each year many are suffocated by carbon monoxide which seeps into closed cars.

A reader writes . . .

The proposal to have a Junior College located at Lindsay has drawn some interesting reaction.

In a letter to the paper to Mr. Norman Skitch has focused attention on certain aspects of the proposal which warrant more than "letters to the editor" coverage.

Mr. Skitch writes, quote: "I have noted with interest motions of both the High School Board and County Council regarding repositioning Premier First to bring a junior college to the Lindsay area."

"These are very fine moves but are perhaps only a part of what we as a town and county area should be doing in the matter of establishing an institution of high learning in our area."

"Compare Lindsay, for example, with Guelph. Figure out the difference between Grade 13 graduates going over to university. Guelph sent over 60 per cent. Lindsay less than 10 per cent. Guelph has 60 A.C. and MacDonald Hall. The biggest expense of advanced education is the expense of those living away from home."

"A large interested group might be formed locally to spearhead a movement to bring education of the university level to our district. An institution of this kind would be an asset to the community long after changes in our present travel and communication facilities have taken place."

"In Ottawa during the war night lectures in university subjects were given in the high schools. Those who were in university subjects were the start of Carleton University. The lecturers were university professors employed in the time government service and qualified secondary teachers who all gave of their time at perhaps nominal fees."

"This might be a pattern for local development before we call on Government and can have help in starting a building program. Before being fully chartered, we will perhaps be leaning heavily on other Central Ontario Universities, such as Queens, Victoria, McMaster, etc., in setting a standard curriculum."

"With specialists in several fields in the area, there is locally a great deal of undeveloped talent that might provide a nucleus of temporary lecturing staff. There are perhaps a few professors at or near retirement age who might like to come back to their home area and help establish this level of institution for higher learning."

A name that comes to mind is Prof. R. A. Mackay, formerly of Cornell and Dalhousie Universities, who is doing for retirement some of the External Affairs work in a term as Canadian Ambassador to Norway."

"Another approach to the problem might be like Charlotte in Prince Edward Island. Here higher learning might be working in conjunction with a high school program. Prince of Wales College has become the secondary grades between the secondary grades and two years university level in Arts."

"Therefore, I feel a really concentrated effort to get put forth in this venture as we are not asking for a paved ever fine public building, however these assets might be. We would be planning a superstructure that would benefit the south of this area for generations to come."
